

CALOR 2012

Optional Activities

4-8 June, 2012 • Santa Fe, New Mexico

Santa Fe is a city rich in Native American tradition and big-city modernity. Each year, visitors from around the globe flock here to enjoy the city's many historical and cultural offerings. To ensure you have an opportunity to enjoy some of Santa Fe's many attractions, special tours and excursions have been arranged specifically for CALOR2012 participants.

Wednesday, June 6

Bandelier National Monument and Bradbury Science Museum

12:30pm – 5:30pm

Travel to Bandelier National Monument where you'll descend into a canyon filled with the ruins of the Anasazi Indians, colloquially "the Ancient Ones." Located on the Pajarito Plateau of the volcanic Jemez Mountains, Bandelier was the home of the Anasazi from the eleventh to fourteenth centuries. Excavated over 90 years ago, these ruins were once home to over 200 people, ancestors of today's Pueblo Indians. Hundreds of petroglyphs carved by the original residents are still visible. You may walk along easy paths past the remains of ancient Pueblo dwellings to the cliff dwellings where you can climb ladders to peer inside. Our next stop is the Bradbury Science Museum, in Los Alamos.

COST: $95 per person includes transportation, professional guide, boxed lunch and entrance fees based on a minimum of 15 people.

Chimayo Tour

1:00pm – 5:00pm

Enjoy a drive through the beautiful sandstone formations into the lush Chimayo Valley. The tour will take us north of Santa Fe along the "High Road", passing through several small 18th and 19th century Hispanic farming communities before finally arriving at the village of Chimayo, located in a beautiful valley in the foothills of the Sangre de Cristo Mountains. Stops include the charming Santuario de Chimayo, the most important Catholic pilgrimage site in the Southwest, Centinela Weaving and Estrella del Norte Winery

COST: $80 per person includes transportation, professional guide, donations, wine tasting, all service, gratuities, based on 15.

Chile Amor! Cooking Class

1:45pm-3:30pm

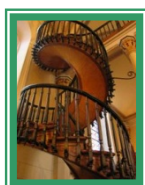

Do you love chile? Are you curious but unfamiliar? Our Chile Amor class will delight those already familiar with New Mexico's official state vegetable and light the fires of passion for those yet uninitiated. Here in the Land of Enchantment, chile is more than an ingredient; it is the embodiment of a diverse and rich cultural heritage and a distinct Southwestern lifestyle. Participants will explore chile's unique culinary and medicinal qualities, learn to identify different varieties, and discover how to handle them safely and efficiently in the kitchen. After the introduction we'll don aprons and prepare red and green chile sauces and homemade tortillas to taste! Limit of 16 people, so register early! THIS IS A HANDS-ON CLASS.

COST: $65 per person includes recipes, instruction, snacks, based on 12.

Walking Tour of the Historic Santa Fe Plaza

2:00pm – 4:00pm

Walk through more than 400 years of history, art, and culture. Visit the historic Plaza and the Palace of the Governors (whose occupants have included government and military leaders from Spain, Mexico, the Confederacy, the U.S. and Indian nations). Learn about St. Francis Cathedral, and explore the Loretto Chapel and its miraculous staircase; the oldest church; and the capitol, and other major Santa Fe historical sites. The tour will finish at the O'Keeffe Museum, where guests can explore on their own.

COST: $35 per person includes guide, entrance fees, and gratuities, based on 12.
